

display@d displayedtech.com

ULW200
information gateway

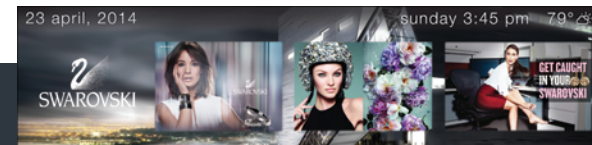

- generate revenue
- interact dynamically
- engage your audience
- communicate graphically
- broadcast instantaneously
- enhance customer experience fits all major automated people movers works with new or existing installations integrates with existing IT infrastructure one contiguous ultra wide LCD panel uses existing advertising channels content experts available global language support dynamic advertising graphical wayfinding increase advertising revenue by mixing ad space with directional signage drop-in retrofit for conventional signage delivers modern content for modern airports

ULW200
information gateway

display@d
displayedtech.com

The ULW200 information gateway delivers the best and brightest, full color images on one contiguous LCD panel. Its ultra wide aspect ratio makes it ideal for transportation signage and other non-standard spaces. Each integration effort includes custom facades and enclosures to match your existing interiors. The ULW200 is a drop-in replacement for conventional LED array signs in Bombardier APMs and are easily converted for other major APM manufacturers. Contact displayed technologies directly for more information: info@displayedtech.com

full color animations